

Club statement on proposed changes in requirements for laden oil tankers to evidence P&I cover while in Turkish waters

The International Group is aware of an announcement by the maritime authorities in Turkey concerning proposed changes in requirements for laden oil tankers to evidence P&I cover while in Turkish waters. The Group is studying the proposals in order to prepare a response. Further information will be provided in due course.